

A Celebration and Rededication of Harris House

The Rector begins

Almighty God, watchful and caring, our source and our end: All that we are and all that we have is yours. Accept us now, as we rededicate this space to God's glory.

The Senior Warden continues

Lord Jesus Christ, continue to make Harris House a place of welcome and gathering for our parish family and the wider community. May its rooms be filled with outreach and recovery groups, scout troops and theatre companies, Bible studies and dance classes. May its doors remain open to invite all of God's people.

The Rector continues

We give you thanks, O God, for the gifts of your people, and for the time and talent of many hearts and hands. For our founding missionary, Caroline Harris, for whom this building is named. For the generous bequest of Edward A. Dodd, son of The Reverend Edward A. Dodd our eighth rector, whose legacy allowed us to bring this project to completion and in whose name the new Dodd Room is dedicated.

Therefore, we gather this day, the 21st of January, 2018 to rededicate Harris House in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The People respond

Thanks be to God!
